

2017 Ambassador Committee

Chair: Nikki Mosier, Community Manager, Smallwood Plaza

Charge

The Ambassador Committee is a critical component of IAA's strategic plan. This committee actively plans and executes local engagement strategies including educational and networking events, member recruitment and retention, and local advocacy efforts. Committee members serve as the key contributors to new and existing services and programs throughout the year.

Composition

All committee members shall be members in good standing of the Association. The committee should be a diverse representation of IAA membership. Committee members will work closely with Director of Membership and Professional Development.

The term of appointment is based on the calendar year (January– December). All committee members should expect to contribute an average of two hours per quarter, with variation depending on tasks.

Benefits

Committee members will benefit from the opportunity to connect with industry leaders to advance IAA's mission. Committee members will expand their professional networks with IAA members and contribute to the betterment of the multi – family housing industry and IAA.
