

When disaster strikes, the Indiana Apartment Association wants to help.

Severe weather throughout Indiana is a continual threat to apartment management companies, apartment communities and their residents affected by natural disasters.
Whether donating clothing, food, water or book bags for children, IAA is raising funds to provide the assistance needed.

What are the Funds used For?

Donations will be used for food, bottled water, clothing, furniture and household items, children's school supplies...any residents' necessities

Each emergency situation will be different – needs will be assessed and action determined as each crisis warrants.
